Nebraska notary stamp requirements

This guidance document is advisory in nature but is binding on an agency until amended by such agency.

You must use an ink stamp seal engraved with the following: State of Nebraska General Notary or General Notarial Your name as commissioned The expiration date of the commission Please note the following strict deadlines for renewal applications: As a general rule, renewal items must be submitted to the Secretary of State's Office no later than 5:00 p.m. on the commission expiration date. If your commission expiration date falls on a weekend date (Saturday or Sunday), the renewal items must be received in our office by 5:00 p.m. on the Friday preceding the weekend. If your commission expiration date falls on a holiday during the business week, the renewal items must be received in our office by 5:00 p.m. the preceding business day. Nebraska law provides that any renewal application made after the expiration date shall be made in the same manner as an application for a new notary commission. pabapavagimise To obtain a new notary commission, applicants are required to pass a test. Purchase of an errors and omissions policy is optional, and you do not have to provide proof of such coverage to our office. You must already be a Nebraska notary public to become an online notary public. The Online Notary Registration Form requires you identify an online notary solution provider approved by the Secretary of State (please see approved solution providers identified below on this page). Once your registration form is approved, you will be notified to register for the required course (the course will be conducted via webinar). Once you've taken the course you will receive a test by email. Once you've passed the test you will receive your online notary commission certificate via email. After you receive your online notary commission certificate you will need to provide it to your approved solution provider. For questions please email sos.enotary@nebraska.gov.
